Hotels Suffer Losses Of Linen and Silver When Women Convene

Annual Loss From Petty Theft Computed in Thousands

BY ALBIE SUMNER

Hotels dread women's conventions. For it means they will lose thousands of towels and spoons. This is just one interesting revelation from the Hotel Manager of the Statler Hotel in Cleveland, Ohio, who says that large hotels annual loss in towels alone runs from $15,000 to $25,000 a year, and that the depreciation on silver, sheets, towels and even blankets at the time of a woman's convention are absorbing.

How About a Club? How about some new women's club? It is a question that has been asked by the Hotel Manager of the Statler Hotel in Cleveland, Ohio, who says that large hotels annual loss in towels alone runs from $15,000 to $25,000 a year, and that the depreciation on silver, sheets, towels and even blankets at the time of a woman's convention are absorbing.

WILSON HYDIX

No Man is a Failure. However Small His Bank Balance. Who Invested His Capital in Children and Brought Up a Fine Family—His Sacrifice of Time and Money Make Him Rich in Their Love

A man said to me the other day: "I feel that I am a failure because at 43 I have not got anywhere. I have not achieved anything. I have worked hard all my life, but I have not been able to accumulate any money. I have not been able to save anything for my old age."

"It was a hard job being mother and father both, but I kept my children in school and they grew up to be fine men and women. You are all married and have children of your own. You are all rich in their love."

The reason why you are poor, I feel, is because you have not been able to invest in your children. You have not been able to give them the best of everything.

My child is one of the most expensive luxuries on earth, and to bring up a child is a very expensive business. You have to give them the best of everything.

He invests his all in his children. The money that he might have saved for himself, he has given to his children. He has given them the best of everything.

This is a pitifully mistaken view to take of the subject. Whether the child is a boy or a girl, the father has done a noble part because he has not without thinking of the future.

We hear much of the sacrifices that mothers make. They are great and wonderful and beautiful, but they are no greater, nor more wonderful, than the sacrifices that fathers make.

When the children grow up to take of the subject. Whether the child is a boy or a girl, the father has done a noble part because he has not without thinking of the future.

YANKES BUY NEW "WOR"

"Keystone Kids" Were Possibly Best Bargain—Cubs Profit

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The New York Yankees, as a result of their latest deal in baseball, will have acquired three-fifths of the outstanding issue of Yankee infield prospects. The most eagerly sought of these was the "keystone kid" of the outfield club of the Chicago league—Lynn Lary and Jimmy Hines—whose purchase for an estimated $150,000 was announced yesterday for the Yankees by the Chicago Cubs. The Cubs, in return, will receive a considerable sum of money from the Yankees. The deal is expected to be a strong inducement for the Yankees to acquire the Cubs' outfield prospects, who have shown indications of being a "hot" bunch.
